DEFINE THE GAME

After a close battle with Richmond, the Yale Bulldogs football team lost a heartbreaking homecoming game. The final score was 41-38. Although the Bulldogs didn't win, the town of Yale still came together and supported the team. Hopefully the Varsity team can pull out the "W" next year.

Forever in our hearts 1/28/94 - 10/7/11

Why are you crying do you think that I am gone?
I have not left you, I am where I belong.
Anytime you are lonely, anytime you are sad, anytime that your heart breaks, anytime you are mad...
All you have to do is close your eyes and I will be there with you.
You see the world may take my body, but that is all that it can do.
Do not stop the memory of the time that we have shared.
Take time to laugh when life gets hard, the way we used to do.

A smell, a touch, the morning sun? They all will help you see.
I am still here and I have never left...Now smile
once more for me.
Live each day and keep looking up...My life was not in vain. I have finished the task that I was born to do. That is why I could not remain.
Until I see you again, I will love you forever and always.

Football

Bulldog Pride Moments

Yale has been known for hard played football. The Yale varsity Bulldogs tried their best this season, and ended up with a 4-5 season. Not the record they hoped for but they had fun and worked hard all season long. The JV team had a great year and went undefeated! And the freshman football team worked hard and got better, too.

Sideline Cheer

Defining the spirit...

"This year's sideline team had a blast cheering on the boys. We all had the chance to grow as individuals and as a team. It was an honor being a captain for this year's team and it has given me the opportunity to live my senior year to the fullest while building new friendships with all the girls. The best part about our team was the support we all had for each other when we achieved new goals that pushed us to the next level. Its sad knowing this is my last year, but I know the girls will continue making Yale High School proud."

Making the Moments Happen

One Serve at a Time

This year the varsity volleyball team had a great season, only losing to one team in the BWAC; they took second place in the conference. With a new coach David Czech leading the Bulldogs, the girls played some very tough competition including many Class A teams. A positive and determined attitude kept the girls going when they played the better competition. The Seniors kept the team together providing a steady foundation for the teams success, they're going to be greatly missed next year.

Girls Basketball

Moments of Victory

This season was a start of a new beginning for the girls basketball program. With a new coach, Mr. Josh Presnell, coming in at full speed, the girls were all ready to work hard. All new coaches brought in new ideas, pointing the program in a different direction. Although it wasn't a perfect season for the varsity girls, there were many improvements along the way. The season was a lot of fun, and good things are expected in years to come.

Competitive Cheer

Moments of Perfection...Execution is Everything

At the start of the season, the competitive team took on a rough patch because so many Seniors were lost, but soon enough we all became one amazing family. Everyone on the team all had a unique style of cheering and liked to put their own twist on things which made this year's team grow with potential. Not one single girl on the team would have wanted the season to end any other way.

Girls Track

Defining a Legacy

In the past 3 years, Yale's female track team has emerged as a powerhouse in the league and region. Following this growing tradition of excellence, last year after a heartbreaking loss to Cros-Lex, breaking a 2-year-long undefeated streak, Yale came back in the end to win the BWAC meet and capture their share of the title. The team was very successful at invitationals in 2011, with Sidney Bischer claiming the MVP title at the Caro Meet of Champions. Extending their season to the state meet were Sidney Bischer and Taylor Terpening.

Senior Sara Taylor speeds ahead of the Cros-Lex competition to clinch crucial points for the Bulldog's dual meet against their biggest rivals.

It was a really great season, we all worked really hard and it showed in how we performed.

We had a really fun season, and we all got close and bonded. The best part was that we won BWAC!!!!

It's not your will that makes you succeed, it's the team behind you pushing you farther.

Track has been an awesome experience where I have made a lot of great memories. The team has done awesome over the past few years and I am very proud to have been part of the team.

Boys Track

"Fear the Beard"

The boys track team ran their hardest this year. Last year the 4x100 meter relay team made it to States. Lead by record 100 meter dash-breaking junior Brett Schemansky. The guys team this year plans on doing even better, and winning the BWAC title, and hopefully reaching even higher and more individually goals. Good luck boys!

Making History... Again

The Yale Girl's Tennis team is a team full of energy and optimism. With a little bit of blood, sweat and tears the girls pulled off a successful season.

"We had another fantastic season. Qualifying for the State finals for a second year was our main goal, and we accomplished it. The girls worked hard throughout the season and were able to improve and come together as a team. I look forward to another great season, with many good players coming back."

The boys had a very good season finishing 3rd overall in BWAC standings with 53 points. The team average was a 199.4 with an impressive individual average of 42.3. In the 2012 season 5 out of the 6 starters will return to compete for the title. Our golf team had some stand outs also, out of 48 players Joey Falk finished 9th in the BWAC, Jordan Harms was 13th and Brandon Dupius finished 21st. Nice job boys! We can only set goals even higher for next year.

Reinventing the Score

GOOOOOAL.....

This year the soccer team finished 1-15. It was definitely a transition year for the team as they received a new coach Pat Egan. They didn't have a lot of wins, but they definitely had a lot of heart. One of the highlights of the season was when the soccer team played under the lights at the park. The students and parents showed great support for the players that night. The players had a lot of fun this year and will definitely improve for next year's season.

Great Job Yale Soccer Team!!!

Yale Student council is an organization that gets involved in its school and community in a variety of ways. It also trains and encourages students to be civic-minded leaders. Student Council officers are elected in the spring, and 2nd hour representatives are elected in the fall. Meetings are held every other Tuesday, during AAA. Student council members are kept quite busy taking care of monthly teacher appreciation activities, school wide dances, pep rallies, blood drives, and food drives.

Organizations

The Yale High School Student Council gives students a chance to help make decisions about our school. In addition to being a wonderful learning experience, it demonstrates to the students that they can have a voice in the school and that adults value their input. The biggest value of the Student Council, however, is to provide students with a model of the democratic decision-making process. Student Council members are looked upon as the voice of the student body, capable of seeing many advancements and projects come into action. Leadership is the key word for a successful student council, and all of the Yale High School Student Council members display fantastic amounts of leadership.

Events sponsored by the Student Council:

Red Cross Blood Drive, Homecoming, Julie's Kids Food Drive, Toy Drive, and Spaghetti Dinner, Teacher Appreciation, Cupid's Dance, Koin's for Kids fundraiser, and the Spring Talent Show

Monica,

You're sassy, bright, and beautiful.
You'll never be stuck in a cubicle.
You aspire to be the best
In all that you do,
Pursuing your goals,
Through life's avenue.

Charming the world with your presence and grace,
You've always been our "Pot of Gold".
Our treasure at the end of a special place,
A rainbow, that brightens the sky,
As does your smile, for all to behold.

We're very proud of you on the graduation day.
Don't let it lead you too faraway,
As we love you so very much,
Like everyone else whol you've touched.

Love from the bottom of our hearts,
Mom and Dad

Tiffany Elizabeth,

On a beautiful day in June of 1994,
God gave me a miracle. From that day, I knew that I was given the best gift someone could recieve. My baby girl, time has gone by so fast. From teaching you ABC's and riding bikes to computers and driving a car. You have grown to be such a beautiful adult. I am so proud of you. Life hasn't always been easy, but we've managed. That's how I know you will able to make it in thi world. You are a smart, strong young lady that can handle anything you put your mind to. Congratulations. With all the love my heart can give.

Love,

Mom and Brittany
Aunt Cheryl and Uncle Bob
Grandma and Grandpa

Brock,

You defied all odds to enter into this world. From the moment you came into our lives we knew it would forever be changed. A beautiful baby boy with endless possibilities.

Once you learned to walk you always hit the floor running, always looking back to make sure we were hot on your heels! Then as a young boy new challenges awaited you. At four years old you decided you were up for the challenge of dirtbiking...we watched you conquer the sand, negotiate and master the trail, and take on every hill that you could find, little did we know we would still see that beautiful baby boy looking back at us making sure we were still hot on your heels! This journey began with your dad leading you through those trails and how he is proud to say you lead him!!

One of the greatest things we admire about you "B" is your ability to adapt to any situation. You are not afraid to choose the road less traveled. Your kind spirit and endless wit empowers you to seek what you do not know, master things you thought you could never do, and reach for all you wish to become. You truly are "that guy". As this chapter of your life closes, a new one begins. Remember life is all about the journey. Much like dirt biking, life can get challenging at times but that is where your determination to conquer will always see you through.

Looking back we watched a talented young boy mature into a tremendous young man. Savor every moment. We have never been more proud you than we are today for the amazing young man you have become. Chase your dreams wherever they may take you and always know we will never be far behind.

Our love forever,
Dad, Mom, and Melanie

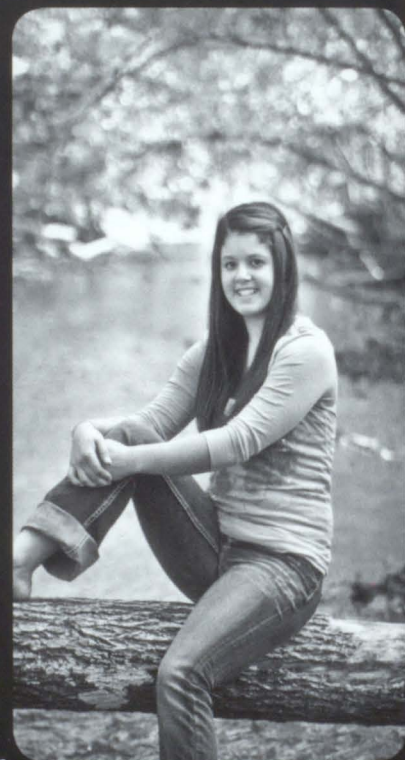

Shelby,

It is so hard to believe that 18 years have passed by already. Looking back at all the years you were growing up as a feisty, determined, curly haired little girl makes us so proud of the women yo have become today. Shelby, life is going to throw you challenges and obstacles that we know you will have no trouble overcoming. Set your mind and heart on doing whatever it is you want to do with your life, and NEVER settle for second best. You have grown into a bright, caring, responsible young lady and we couldn't be more proud of you.

As you finish out your senior year of high school and plan for your future; remember, we are your family and we will always be here to help guide you when you need us. With God and your family by your side, you will accomplish whatever you set out to do.

Congratulations Shelby Leneel

We are so proud of you, Meister! It seems like just yesterday my little "Mockingbird" was following me around the house repeating every word I said! Words can't express how I feel about your accomplishments, knowing that this is the beginning of many, many more!

We love you! Mom and Dad

LBailey,

We have always been extremely proud of the person you are, and we are looking forward to the person you are going to become. We have no doubt you will achieve any goals you set for yourself. We feel so blessed to have you as a daughter~it's hard to believe you have grown up so quickly! When you were little we would wonder what kind of person you would grow up to be and of course as parents our expectations for you were high. Now as you are a senior getting ready to make your own way in the world we couldn't be more proud of the beautiful person you've become. You've exceeded our expectations with your accomplishments and strong character. We have no doubts you will not only succeed in college but you will thrive in college and beyond! CONGRATULATIONS!

Taylor,
After nine months, you couldn't wait any longer to meet us so without waiting for the doctor to arrive, you decided to come into this world on your own terms.

And at that very moment...
As you drew your first breath..
And we held you for the first time...
We stopped being Kevin and Mary...
And became the Sokacz family..

We never thought we could be more proud of you than we were that day...
We were wrong.

Congrats and Good Luck!

A daughter is a treasure, a blessing from God and you were definitely delivered by angels. You have filled our hearts with such love, pride, and tremendous joy. You are much more than we could have ever hoped for. We want to thank you for being the kind of person we are honored to call our daughter. You embody such strength & beauty. Your kindness & determination are such genuine qualities you are such an inspirational, compassionate & dedicated young woman. We know that whatever obstacles may come your way you will always forge your own path & walk, sometimes run, towards your destiny. We trust that you will know how to make those hard decisions as you grow older & that you will always overcome life's challenges. We believe in you and as you embark on this wonderful journey may you always remember how much your family loves you and that we will always be here for you.

We love you T-Bird, Mom & Dad

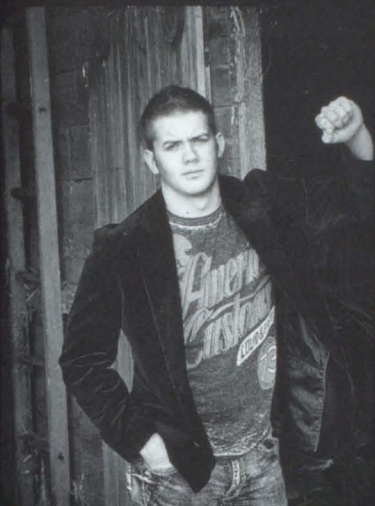

Tay, as your big sister I want you to know how much I've always looked up to you! I love how you never stop trying, you always shoot for the stars at everything you do and that makes me so proud of you. Always remember whether you're just across the hallway or miles away from me, that I will always love you T-Bird.

Love, Autumn

Gav,

When you were born, we were so young. We did our best to teach you strength, character, and values. We look at you today, 18 years later, a strong, smart, caring, well-rounded young man who has so much life to live and so many successes to be had.

You have a huge heart that has always seen the best in people. You have a smile that lights up any room and could make a complete stranger feel at ease. You have a personality that has brought us so many laughs!

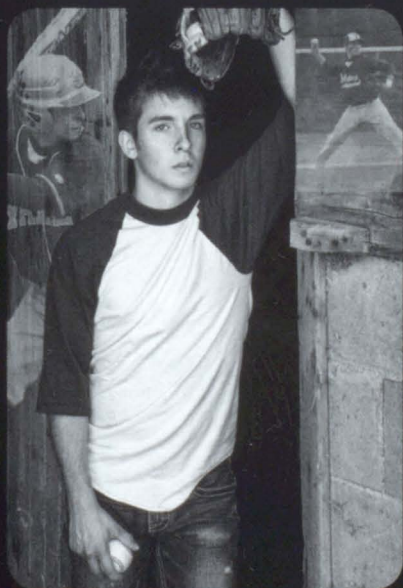

You have never disappointed us in the classroom or on the many battlefields playing the sports you love. You have approached new challenges with passion, proved with determination, practice, and plain hard work can pay off. We will always look at you with so much pride and love in our eyes.

Yale High has provided you with gifted mentors, passionate coaches, lasting friendships, and many truly great moments that you will treasure forever. With that being said, home will always be where your heart is.

Congratulations to our #4!

Your #1 fans...Mom, Dad, and Gabi

Stephen-

We are extremely proud of your extraordinary achievements. Your dedication and determination are genuine qualities that have helped you prepare for the future. We are wishing you the very best and want to share our words of encouragement and loving thoughts.

Take on and welcome new challenges. Free your thoughts and have an open mind to the endless possibilities. Believe in yourself and know we will always be here for you.

Share in people's lives and accept them for who they are, be responsible, have fun, and enjoy your life. As you set out on your journey to define yourself, never let there be a moment where you forget you are always in our thought and we love you very much!

Congratulations!

The 2012 yearbook staff worked hard to create a memorable high school yearbook. With the theme, "Defining the Moments", 30 dedicated students put out countless hours of time and energy in order to meet every deadline. The yearbook was printed by Herff Jones Yearbook Company in Gettysburg, PA with a run of 420 copies. This year's book was created using Adobe InDesign CS3. All pictures were digital and formatted with Corel Draw and Adobe Photoshop CS3.

Our deepest gratitude goes out to all of our administrators, faculty members, and staff for all of their support and cooperation during the school year.

A very special thanks to all of our sponsors and advertisers whose funding makes the production of the yearbook possible. Also, special thanks to Ian Wixson for the Yearbook 2012 cover design and graphics.

WAVES OF CHANGE Former Egyptian President Hosni Mubarak, who had been in power since 1981, was ousted in 2011.

He was later put on trial for allegedly ordering the killing of protesters. EGYPTIAN PROTESTERS Waving their national flag and shouting slogans, thousands crowded Cairo's Tahrir Square to demand political change as anger grows with the military rulers over the slow pace of reform. TOGETHER IN PROTEST The flags of Syria, Tunisia, Yemen, Egypt and Libya were painted on participants' palms during a demonstration in Yemen.

ARAB SPRING

PROTESTS ACROSS THE MIDDLE EAST brought changes to Arab nations large and small. Uprisings began in Tunisia, where, as 2010 ended, a young vendor protesting the confiscation of his wares set himself on fire. Discontent spread to Egypt and Yemen as 2011 began, and in the months that followed those governments and leaders from Bahrain, Libya and Syria were under siege. By year's end, the presidents of Tunisia, Egypt and Yemen had stepped down and Libya's Moammar Gadhafi and his son Mutassim had been assassinated. Tunisians went to the polls in October 2011 and the Egyptian election took place just a month later. The protests continued despite high costs: thousands of lives (5,000 in Syria alone) and billions of dollars were lost.

10 YEARS LATER Dedication ceremonies for the families of victims marked the anniversary of the attacks on the World Trade Center, while the 9/11 Memorial on the 16-acre site of the former WTC complex opened to the public the following day. Despite interest rates as low as 4%, home ownership continued to decline. OCCUPY WALL STREET After gaining the world's attention with an online presence in addition to gathering in NYC's financial district, protesters disturbed by growing income inequality and wealth distribution in the United States between the wealthiest 1% and the rest of the population replicated occupations from coast to coast. POTENTIAL GOVERNMENT SHUTDOWN The Budget Control Act of 2011 was passed on August 2, bringing a conclusion to the debt-ceiling crisis, which had threatened to lead the United States into sovereign default. STONE OF HOPE The August, 2011 dedication of the Martin Luther King Jr. Memorial in Washington, DC honors Dr. King's contributions and vision for all to enjoy a life of freedom, opportunity and justice. UNEMPLOYMENT While January 2012 data showed a national unemployment rate of just 8.3% — the lowest in more than three years, economists warned that the encouraging report might be the result of factors like discouraged job seekers giving up the hunt for work as much as economic growth.

LOCKOUT DRAMA

COLLECTIVE BARGAINING PITTED PLAYERS

AGAINST OWNERS in both the NBA and NFL. Sports fans feared the worst but both leagues were able to agree in time to save most of their regular seasons. In the NBA, the focus was primarily on cutting player salaries to help struggling teams. Both sides remained far apart on just about every major issue. They settled in late November, agreeing to a 66-game schedule, with the first games set for Christmas Day, cutting two weeks off the regular season. The NFL lockout lasted from March 11 to July 25. Once an agreement was reached, the players won additional benefits; the continuation of a 16-game regular season schedule, improvements in player safety and increased injury protection. Almost as soon as an agreement was reached, trades, deals, cuts and contracts were made.

While Navy SEALs were involved in a firefight on Osama bin Laden's compound, Athar was lightheartedly complaining that the copters were keeping him awake. Unknowingly, he was the first to report the mission using Twitter. The attack on the 38,000-square-foot compound was followed by bin Laden's burial at sea.

IT'S EVERYWHERE! From bacon bandages to an ever-growing array of edible products, bacon prevailed. Bacon-flavored cupcakes, lip balm and dental floss found their way to market.

TEBOW MANIA

FORMER HEISMAN TROPHY WINNER and Denver Broncos QB Tim Tebow inspired fans when — surrounded by celebrating teammates — he knelt in prayer following a victory. As with other posing phenoms, photos and videos of people "Tebowing" and unaffected by their incongruous surroundings were common.

BACK TO THE FUTURE Nike started selling its Marty McFly self-lacing shoes in September, but it was the Air Jordan XI Concord that caused chaos, lines and holiday shopping scenarios that required police assistance. PLANKING It wasn't enough to lay face down, expressionless with your arms at your side and fingers and toes pointed. To "count" as planking, a photo or video needed to be posted online.

EVERYTHING OLD...

Instagram and Pinterest allowed photographers and crafters to create and share online. CRAZY FOR COUPONS From TV shows and websites teaching people to save to online services like Groupon and Living Social, it was all about getting more for less. MIA (MISSING IN ACTION) Thanks to Twitter, the world was very aware of a 20-inch cobra thought to be missing from the Bronx Zoo. After a week of searches, the three-ounce female was discovered onsite.

TRY IT FRIED...

KOOL-AID BALLS New at the San Diego County Fair: a fried treat resembling a donut hole, flavored with cherry Kool-Aid. The vendor sold thousands.

MOON PIE With its graham cracker cookies, marshmallow filling and chocolate (or flavored) covering, this treat was also popular fried.

CANDY BARS A favorite at fairs for years, fried Snickers and other flavors were also found battered, fried and served a la mode on dessert menus.
